

HOUSE TO HOME

Valerie Garrett creates interiors of impeccable taste and modern elegance with her refined design aesthetic. Her clientele extend across the Southeast where she has provided residential and commercial design services for more than 25 years. She believes that our homes and workspaces are tangible extensions of who we are and what we value. Known for her highly engaging and individualized attention to her clients, she seeks to bring their desires, interests and preferences to life through the creation of personalized expressions of beauty. Blending traditional and transitional styles, her designs create sophisticated spaces that come alive through the easy connections that they foster: stylish and understated, quiet and tasteful. Her signature modern elegance style rejects trend for a fresh take on timelessness.

Having designed countless residences and multiple office spaces, Valerie has been named one of Georgia's Top 100 Designers and has received numerous awards for her designs and concierge-level client services.
